The world of laboratory technology and diagnostics at a glance

Whether diagnosing infectious illnesses or studying tissue and fluids, doctors turn to point-of-care tests or send a sample to a laboratory they trust.

But what happens to the sample once sent in?

What is the state of the art today in laboratory technology and which new analysis methods are being researched?

What role do bio-banks play and what is happening at the moment in the market for laboratory equipment, accessories and parts?

You will learn the answers to these and many other questions at MEDICA 2018 in Halls 3, 3a and 18.
